

A black and white line drawing of a turkey, facing forward. The turkey's tail feathers are fanned out, and its wings are partially visible. In the center of its chest is a large, white, circular sign with a black border. Inside the sign, the words "CLEVEIRS" and "OMMSECS" are written in a simple, hand-drawn, uppercase font, one above the other. The background is filled with intricate, swirling patterns and lines, suggesting a decorative or abstract setting.
